

Orientation and the aim of the company are defined by the politics of quality - achievement of leadership position in the domestic and regional market in the area of providing its services.

Expansion of warehouse capacity by construction of 1-2 similar objects.

Launching of the project of the introduction of HACCP - Analysis of dangerous and critical control points - will enable the highest standards of transport, warehouse and distribution of food products.

